

Definition of key terms for the BASTA-system

Article	A construction product that is not defined as a chemical product .
BASTA-criteria	The properties criteria that a construction product must meet to be registered in the BASTA-register .
BASTA register	A list of construction products for which the supplier has confirmed that they meet the BASTA-criteria .
BASTA system	The method and conditions to identify construction products that meet the properties criteria , with a BASTA-register and a BETA-register for products that meet the corresponding properties criteria .
BETA criteria	The properties criteria that a construction product must meet to be registered in the BETA-register .
BETA register	A list of construction products for which the supplier has confirmed that they meet the BETA-criteria .
Chemical product	Construction product covered Council Directive 67/548/EEC
Chemical safety report	Document in accordance with regulation (EC) No 1907/2006 (REACH) section IV, specifying the health- and environmental assessment for substances or mixtures. Including risks at handling at foreseen use.
Construction product	Any product used in the erection of building structures.
Co-operation agreement	Agreement signed between the supplier and BASTAonline AB that governs the parties' obligations concerning the BASTA-system .
Properties criteria	A list of maximum permitted concentrations of substances with specified properties in a construction product for it to be allowed to be registered in any of the two registers of the BASTA-system .
Risk information	Information covering the evaluation of environmental- and health-risks associated with the construction product during construction, usage and demolition/waste handling, which the supplier makes public. Including information of how such risks shall be handled. For chemical products this can be a chemical safety report , or equivalent.
Self inspection document	A detailed presentation of how the health and environmental assessment of each substance of the construction product has been made in relation to the properties criteria .
Sub supplier declaration	A certificate, from a sub-supplier to the supplier , that the whole construction product or part thereof meets the terms of qualification .
Supplier	Enterprise placing a construction product on the Swedish market, and the party that by a co-operation agreement is entitled to register construction products in the BASTA-system. e.g. manufacturer, importer or name-changer.
Terms of agreement	The terms and conditions of the Co-operation agreement between the supplier and BASTAonline AB.
Terms of qualification	All conditions that a supplier must meet to have a construction product registered in the BASTA-system .
Validation	A method for ensuring the credibility of the BASTA system by auditing a participating supplier's capacity and ability to meet the Terms of qualification .